BLAKEY & PEAKE.
Warsaw, April 8, 1848-1t.

The Mammoth of the World!

[1848.]

JOHN T. MARTIN,
Old Established Clothier, No. 114, Main Street, St. Louis, Mo.

FOR the approaching Spring of 1848, I made the most extensive arrangements of any other house in the U. States, so as to be enabled to accommodate the hundreds of thousands that will throng my store for the Spring and Summer Fashions.

Motto—"Large Sales & Small Profits."

300,000 GARMENTS,

by far the largest and most complete stock of Ready made Clothing ever manufactured by any one house. From the many advantages I possess, I am confident in asserting that my goods are manufactured at much lower prices than any other house, and I am determined to sell them at such low prices as to defy any and

ALL COMPETITION.

My Spring stock has all been bought for cash and manufactured by myself in the city of New York, and having paid great attention to the cut and fit, will make my stock one of the most desirable ever offered in any city in the Union. I am confident that I can give you as good a fit as any tailor, and cut in the latest and most fashionable style.

Merchants throughout the West, wanting Clothing, at any time by ordering and enclosing the amount, will have it attended to strictly with every care and correctness, and forwarded by the first opportunity.

The great variety my stock will consist of this Spring, will be far superior to any other previous season, and as regards price and quality, will be at least 15 or 20 per cent. cheaper than ever before offered. "The great amount of business I have been doing, (and hope by strict attention to continue) will enable me to offer to my old customers and strangers visiting St. Louis, much greater inducements than any other house this side of the Atlantic.

My desire is to increase my sales, and by doing so can afford to sell you at a very small advance upon the manufacturing price. Transient customers visiting the city and calling on me, will be convinced that my assortment is much larger and far cheaper than anything ever offered to a generous public.

Beware of those who tell you this is MARTIN'S, but bear in mind that I have but one store, No. 114, Main Street, a large No. 114 on the top of the house, and in front a portico with the name MARTIN, in large gilt letters.

I pledge myself to sell lower than any other house. [mar1] JNO. T. MARTIN.

NOTICE—Mr. C. P. SWITZLER is my authorized agent to transact all business during my absence from the city. [jan8] R. C. HENRY.
